

ADMASTON/BROMLEY PUBLIC LIBRARY CHEESE FUNDRAISER

The Admaston/Bromley Public Library (info@admastonbromleylibrary.com) is selling some tasty cheeses just in time for Christmas entertaining and gift-giving. Contactless ordering and pick-up make it easy and safe!

Support Ontario farmers and your local library with this high-quality product! The cheese comes from the Wilton Cheese Factory, a family-run business operating in Eastern Ontario.

CHEESE ORDERS ARE DUE: Saturday, December 3, 2022, at the library in Douglas, by 1pm. Send in your orders via email, Facebook Messenger, phone, or by dropping your order form through the book return.

CHEESE ORDER PICK UP: Monday, December 12, 2022, at the library in Douglas, between 4 and 8 p.m. (Please let us know if you need an alternate date/time.)

IMPORTANT:

You cannot prepay bulk orders. Cheese pieces are priced per kilo. Because the weight varies, the price of each piece also varies, so we cannot determine the exact price of orders for bulk cheese until the cheese is delivered. For this reason, we cannot accept payment in advance for the bulk orders. I can tell you they are approximately 400 grams.

Payment for bulk orders is due by cash (exact amount, please) or cheque when you pick up your cheese.

We will call you to tell you how much you owe before pick-up. THANK YOU!

Please prepay gift boxes by cash or cheque if possible. Cheques for gift boxes can be made out to the Admaston/Bromley Public Library. Prices for 3 box sets do not vary and are listed below.
